INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative
Bozeman, Montana

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative (a non-profit organization) which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2013, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative as of December 31, 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE 1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative (the Organization) was incorporated in 2000 for the purpose of maintaining and restoring the unique natural heritage of the Yellowstone to Yukon region, including its wilderness, wildlife, native animals and plants, and natural processes, in perpetuity. In carrying out this mission, the Organization conducts research, undertakes planning and education, and seeks to foster cooperation among groups within the region.

The program was started in 1995 by a network of U.S. and Canadian organizations, scientists, and individuals. In 2000 the program became two separate entities, Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative (a non-profit corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Montana, “Y2Y Montana”) and Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative Society (a non-profit Society incorporated pursuant to the laws of Alberta, Canada, “Y2Y Alberta”). It is the intention of Y2Y Montana and Y2Y Alberta that the two entities operate seamlessly, with one set of programs and activities addressing the region as a whole. Only four out of nine board members are the same for both boards so there is not common control for the two organizations. Therefore, the accompanying financial statements represent only the financial position, changes in net assets, and cash flows from Y2Y Montana.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, (GAAP), as codified by the Financial Accounting Standards Board.

Classification of Net Assets

Net assets and revenues, expenses, gains, and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Organization and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted net assets – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met, either by actions of the Organization and/or the passage of time. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Permanently restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Organization. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the Organization to use all or part of the income earned on any related investments for general or specific purposes.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At December 31, 2013, the Organization's cash equivalents consisted of an interest-bearing checking account, which is subject to limited coverage of $250,000 by the FDIC. At December 31, 2013, the bank account exceeded insured limits by $155,765.

Grants and Pledges Receivable

Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire in the fiscal year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. All promises to give are considered collectible.

Income Taxes

Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative is exempt from income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, has made no provision for income taxes in the accompanying financial statements.

The Organization is no longer subject to examinations by federal tax authorities for years before 2010.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through April 29, 2014, the date which the financial statements were available for issue.

NOTE 2. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Y2Y Montana contracts with Y2Y Alberta for services rendered for the purpose of carrying out its charitable activities. Both of these organizations share the same President, Business Director, and four out of nine board members.
